

Dr Bushra Johari is a Clinical Radiologist currently working in Faculty of Medicine, Universiti Teknologi MARA. She obtained her MBBS in 2005 from International Islamic University Malaysia. Subsequently she underwent postgraduate training in Radiology, and successfully obtained qualifications from Fellowship of Royal College of Radiologists, UK in 2012, as well as Master of Radiology from University Malaya in 2013. She has special interest in Cardiothoracic Imaging, and recently obtained level 2 verification from Society of Cardiovascular CT. She is an active member of Thoracic Imaging SIG of MCoR, as well as Interstitial Lung Disease (ILD) – SIG of Malaysian Thoracic Society.