

Biographical Sketch
Mark J. Kransdorf, M.D.

Consultant, Department of Radiology
Mayo Clinic, Phoenix, Arizona

Professor of Radiology Mayo Clinic College of Medicine Rochester, Minnesota

Doctor Kransdorf completed his internship and residency in Diagnostic Radiology at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C. and an Orthopedic Radiologic Pathology Fellowship at the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology. He concluded his Army service as the Chief of Musculoskeletal Radiologic Pathology at the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology in Washington, D.C, in April 1993, joining Mayo Clinic in 1999.

He is a past President of the Society of Skeletal Radiology; the organization representing musculoskeletal radiology in North America. He is currently the Editor-in-Chief of Skeletal Radiology, the Journal of the International Skeletal Society and the Official Journal of the Society of Skeletal Radiology.

He is a musculoskeletal radiologist with an expertise in radiologic pathology and is the author of five textbooks, more than thirty book chapters and over 180 peer reviewed journal articles. He has extensively lectured both nationally and internationally and was inducted as a Fellow in the American College of Radiology in 2007. He is the recipient of the 2008 Distinguished Mayo Clinician Award and the 2016 Medal of the International Skeletal Society.